VOL. 6, No. 1

1997

Lifetime yield and herd life for crosses of Friesian strains in Poland A. Żarnecki (Kraków, Poland), H.D. Norman (Beltsville, USA) and J. Jamrozik (Kraków, Poland) .....	1
Correlation between the relative permittivity, conductivity, and qualitative indicators of bull and boar ejaculates L. Máchal, I. Křivánek, G.Chládek and P. Doležal (Brno, Czech Republic) .....	13
Evaluation of three rape seed commodities in the rumen of steers 1. Degradation of dry matter and crude protein and disappearance of amino acids in situ K.-H. Südekum and H. Andree (Kiel, Germany) .....	23
Evaluation of three rape seed commodities in the rumen of steers 2. Degradation of fibre fractions and disappearance of macrominerals in situ K.-H. Südekum, H.Andree and D.Höhler (Kiel, Germany) .....	41
Disappearance of amino acids from the gastro-intestinal tract of dairy cows fed soyabean meal or fish meal diets A. Schröder, K.-H.Südekum (Kiel, Germany), M. Brandt (Hamburg, Germany) and M. Gabel (Rostock, Germany) .....	53

Effect of sex on feed intake, growth and nutrients digestibility of Blackhead sheep fed complete mash rations of crop residues E.M. Aregheore (Lusaka, Zambia) .....	71
A note on the productive performance of feedlot heifer-calves fed on two daily feeding frequencies C. Machado, H. Matoso and N. Auza (Tandil, Argentina) .....	81
Effect of a chromium yeast supplement in growing-finishing pig diets on performance, carcass traits and fatty acid composition of adipose tissue E.R. Grela, T. Studziński, A.Rabos, A.Winiarska (Lublin, Poland) and J. Dziduch (Modliszewice, Poland) .....	87
Characteristics of meatness traits in six generations of ducks in conservative groups J. Książkiewicz (Dworzyska, Poland) .....	101
Chemical composition, energy value for chickens, and protein utilization in rats of rapeseed expeller cakes produced by different pressing technologies S. Smulikowska, B. Pastuszewska, A. Mieczkowska and A. Ochtabińska (Jabłonna, Poland) .....	109
Chemical composition and carbohydrate content of several varieties of faba bean and pea seeds J. Gdala and L. Buraczewska (Jabłonna, Poland) .....	123
Chemical composition and protein digestibility of chloroplastic concentrates from lucerne juice coagulated using various methods B. Baraniak (Lublin, Poland).....	137

VOL. 6, No. 2*1997

Dietary fibres – Important parts of high quality food and feeds Ch. Bjerregaard, H. Sørensen and S. Sørensen (Frederiksberg C, Denmark) 145	145
Dietary fibres and associated compounds in rapeseed and biorefined rapeseed products compared to DF in pea Ch. Bjerregaard, H. Sørensen and S. Sørensen (Frederiksberg C, Denmark) 163	163

Methods for analysis of dietary fibre – advantage and limitations K.E. Bach-Knudsen, H. Nygaard Johansen and V. Glitsø (Foulum Denmark) .....	185
Exocrine pancreatic secretions in growing pigs fed diets containing different levels of protein from soyabean meal S. Li, W.C. Sauer, S.X. Huang and V.M. Gabert (Edmonton, Canada) .....	207
Endogenous N losses at the terminal ileum of young piglets fed diets based on four different protein sources C.A. Makkink (Wageningen, The Netherlands), T. Heinz (Benburg, Germany), W.B. Souffrant (Rostock, Germany) and M.W.A. Verstegen (Wageningen, The Netherlands) .....	219
Ileal digestibility of pea and faba bean carbohydrates in growing pigs J. Gdala and L. Buraczewska (Jabłonna, Poland) .....	235
The effect of feeding diets differing in protein and energy concentrations on fattening performance of three pig crossbreeds J.L. Sokół, J. Kulisiewicz, J. Skomial and E. Sawosz (Warszawa, Poland) .....	247
Chemical composition analysis of plantain foliage ( Musa paradisiaca ) and the effect of its inclusion in the diet nutrient digestibility in the pig J. Ly, A.Garcia and P.L. Dominguez (La Habana, Cuba) .....	257
Herbs as agents affecting the immunological status and growth of piglets weaned with body weight deficiency R. Kołacz, E. Bodak, M. Świtła and P. Gajewczyk (Wrocław, Poland) .....	269
A note on enzyme activity in the serum of Hucul horses of various ages M. Kulisa and M. Ormian (Kraków, Poland) .....	281

A model for estimating endogenous protein flows in the gastrointestinal tract of ruminants A.G. Assis (Dom Bosco-Juiz de Fora, Brazil), J. France (North Wyke, UK), J. Dijkstra (Wageningen, The Netherlands) and D.M. Veira (Winnipeg, Canada) .....	289
Development in the breeding of low fibre rapeseed/canola B.A. Slominski (Winnipeg, Canada) .....	303
Growing and finishing performance and body composition for St. Croix wethers consuming growing diets differing in grain and protein levels A. L. Goetsch (Booneville, USA) .....	319
Meat quality of young Kamieniecka rams and Kamieniecka cross-breeds slaughtered at the age of 50 or 100 days Brzostowski H., Z. Tański, S. Milewski and J. Sowińska (Olsztyn, Poland) .....	333
Seasonal variation of glutathione peroxidase, CK and AST in sheep in a low-selenium region M. López-Alonso, M. Miranda, J. Hernández, C. Castillo, J. Ayala and J.L. Benedito (Lugo, Spain) .....	343
Effect of micronization on energy, starch and amino acid digestibilities in wheat for young pigs S.X. Huang, W.C. Sauer, L. Hargreaves (Edmonton, Canada), M. Pickard (Saskatoon, Canada) and S. Li (Edmonton, Canada) .....	353
Effect of supplemental phytase to laying hen diets of different phosphorus content B.Z. Kamińska (Balice, Poland) .....	369
Broiler chick performance and meat quality depending on the type of fat in feed mixtures E. Świerczewska (Brwinów, Poland), J. Mroczek (Warszawa, Poland), J. Niemiec (Brwinów, Poland), M. Słowiński (Warszawa, Poland), M. Jurczak, A. Siennicka (Brwinów, Poland) and P. Kawka (Jastrzębiec, Poland) .....	379

The effect of enzyme supplementation of triticale-barley feeds on fattening performance of turkeys
D. Mikulski, J. Jankowski, A. Faruga and M. Mikulska (Olsztyn, Poland) 391

The chemical composition and nutritive value of low- and high-tannin faba bean varieties
S. Frejnagel, Z. Zduńczyk and B. Krefft (Olsztyn, Poland) ..... 401

The utilization of protein and mineral components of diets containing white lupin or casein supplemented with lupin hulls, manganese and sodium phytate
J. Juśkiewicz and Z. Zduńczyk (Olsztyn, Poland) ..... 413

Editorial news and events ..... 423

VOL. 6, No. 4 1997

Phytic acid – its influence on organism
T. Szkudelski (Poznań, Poland) ..... 427

Influence of short-term vitamin E supplementation to bulls fed different concentrates on vitamin E content in body tissues and oxidative stability of kidney fat
G. Flachowsky (Braunschweig, Germany), K. Kuhn, A. Schneider (Jena, Germany) and R. Daenicke (Braunschweig, Germany) ..... 439

Rumen degradability of concentrate protein, amino acids and starch, and their digestibility in the small intestine of cows
T. Żebrowska, Z. Długołęcka, J.J. Pająk and W. Korczyński (Jabłonna, Poland) ..... 451

Particle size distribution and outflow rate from the rumen of cows fed rations with different protein sources
J.J. Pająk, T. Żebrowska, Z. Długołęcka and M. Korczyński (Jabłonna, Poland) ..... 471

The effect of diet on microbial mass, xylanase and CMC-ase activities in whole rumen digesta and in different fractions of the rumen contents of cows
T. Michałowski, E. Kwiatkowska and J.J. Pająk (Jabłonna, Poland) ..... 485

A note on the effect of rape seed oil in concentrate/hay ration on microbial protein synthesis in sheep M. Szumacher-Strabel and A. Potkański (Poznań, Poland) .....	499
Appraisal of the value of selected clays and minerals in diets with and without aflatoxin-contaminated maize fed to young pigs M.D. Lindemann, D.J. Blodgett, A.F. Harper, E.T. Kornegay and J.A. Doerr (Blacksburg, USA) .....	507
Effect of variety and dehulling on nutritional value of white lupin seeds for growing pigs M. Flis, W. Sobotka and Z. Zduńczyk (Olsztyn, Poland) .....	521
The use of phytase in broiler chicken diets containing maize and soyabean or rapeseed meal A. Rutkowski, B. Śliwiński and M. Wiąz (Poznań, Poland) .....	533
The effect of feeding whole wheat or rye and enzyme supplementation on laying performance, size of the gizzard and viscosity of intestinal digesta in hens S. Smulikowska, E. Święch and A. Mieczkowska (Jabłonna, Poland) .....	541
Effect of 4-MeSer-GnRH on the release and synthesis of gonadotropins in the female rat in vivo K. Kochman, A. Gajewska, H. Kochman (Jabłonna, Poland) , Y. Lerrant and R. Counis (Paris, France) .....	549
A note on prediction of maize stover quality by near-infrared reflectance spectroscopy (NIRS) technique E. Albanell, J. Plaixats (Bellaterra, Spain) and M <sup>a</sup> T. Mas (Barcelona, Spain) .....	559
Editorial new and events .....	567
Author index .....	569
Contents of Journal of Animal and Feed Sciences, Volume 6 .....	579
